Newsletter Volume 5 Spring 2022

April was the beginning of an exploratory committee with guest Beth Francis helping us update /compile a new version of the "Hebron then and Now" book.

The March membership meeting featured Dennis Creaser owner of Creaser's Jewellery in South Paris. Dennis spoke about the History of Mining and Minerals in Hebron, and the surrounding area. Dennis knows his stuff!

Our April membership meeting welcomed Jessie Yancy owner with Husband of Hebron inspiring us about the history of Lavender, and the process of growing and utilizing it. Visit their web site Pen-Y-Bryn Lavender Farm Hebron Maine. You can thank us later!

The May membership meeting was presented by Peter Hammond of Norway Maine on the Battlefield Life in the Civil War. Peter depicted the daily life of the soldier: what they wore and how they were outfitted. Peter displayed numerous items that were used. Nice job Peter we enjoyed hearing about the individual soldiers, and what they had to endure!

It's another start to summer and Memorial Day is heavy on a lot of minds. Many look forward to this long weekend for a small vacation, barbecues etc. There are however others that remember the real reason for this holiday and their relatives some long ago and others much more recent that paid quite a price for the freedoms that we enjoy have today.

Last year we listed as best we could all the soldiers from Hebron that participated in the Revolutionary war, and were able to point to the graves in Hebron where they are entered decorated with an American flag.

This year we decided to do footwork on the participants of the War of 1812.

There are again quite a few soldiers from Hebron that volunteered for this War, but surprisingly grave sites locations have been extremely hard to pinpoint. With that in mind here are the names, and ranks available. If any reader has any additional information please offer this information to our society that we may honor, and document them as they should be.

These names below are from the Records of the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia in the War of 1812.
